

JEREMY LEE CONLIN §
VS. § CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:08-CV-682
DIRECTOR, TDCJ-CID §

Petitioner Jeremy Lee Conlin, an inmate confined at the Stiles Unit of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Correctional Institutions Division, proceeding pro se, brings this petition for writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254.

Discussion

Title 28 U.S.C. § 2254(a) allows a district court to “entertain an application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court only on the ground that he is in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States.” 28 U.S.C. § 2254(a). A state prisoner is required to file his federal petition for writ of habeas corpus in either the district where the prisoner is incarcerated or the district where the prisoner was convicted and sentenced. 28 U.S.C. § 2241(d). Although both district courts have jurisdiction to entertain the application, “[t]he district court for the district wherein such an application is filed in the exercise of its discretion and in furtherance of justice may transfer the application to the other district court for hearing and determination.” Id.

Petitioner is currently confined at the Stiles Unit in Jefferson County. Therefore, this court has jurisdiction to entertain the petition. However, petitioner was convicted and sentenced in Montgomery County, which is located in the Houston Division of the Southern District of Texas. The court has considered the circumstances and has determined that the interest of justice would best be served if this petition were transferred to the district where petitioner was convicted and sentenced. Therefore, the petition should be transferred to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas for hearing and determination. An order transferring the case will be entered by the undersigned.
